Sarasota ABSTRACT EXPRESSIONIST ARTIST moves studio gallery from Burns Court to Towles Court.

Sarasota, FL---January 28, 2011---A rising star in the world of abstract art, Beverly A. Smith has relocated her art studio/gallery from Burns Court to The Celery Barn in Towles Court, 266 South Links Ave, Sarasota. Her work has been noted and appreciated in such places as Sarasota Arts Center, MOSI, Attleboro Arts Museum, Arden Gallery in Boston, The Art Basel Miami and this March at the "Together" Contemporary Art Show in New York City. She has also displayed her artwork at Raymond James, UBS and several establishments around Sarasota.

"The Celery Barn is such a great place for me to be most creative and free in art expression, says Beverly. "The lighting (in the gallery) is just perfect."

Smith, a native New Englander who has travelled the world, produces bright and energetic work in thick oil using a palette knife or brush. Much of her work draws on her love of the marshes in Falmouth and Edgartown, Cape Cod. Beverly's paintings are appreciated for being unique and fluid.

Being actively engaged in the Sarasota arts community, Beverly A. Smith will be hosting internationally recognized artist, Basha Maryanska. Basha will be at The Celery Barn offering workshops in composition, drawing and contemporary art for a limited time. Classes begin February 1st, for more information on the workshops and Beverly A.
