Dancing through the Eyes of Women

Beverly A. Smith Abstract Expressionist Artist is one of four artists celebrating art and dance with Fuzion Dance Artists

Sarasota, FL---May 16, 2011—Beverly A. Smith, Abstract Expressionist Artist, is one of four artists celebrating "Dancing through the Eyes of Women" with Fuzion Dance Artists, June 3rd-5th, Friday / Saturday 8PM and Sunday 2pm at Art Center Sarasota, 707 N. Tamiami Trail, Sarasota.

The performance includes an original composition by renowned composer Francis Schwartz played by Emily Brebach, other musicians include percussionist Drew Silverman and Felicia Brunelle of the Sarasota Orchestra.

Acceptance, one of Beverly A. Smith's paintings will be showcased during the Fuzion dance performance. A rising star in the world of abstract art, Beverly A. Smith has recently relocated her art studio/gallery from Burns Court to The Celery Barn in Towles Court. Smith, a native New Englander who has travelled the world, produces bright and energetic work in thick oil using a palette knife or brush. Much of her work draws on her love of the marshes in Falmouth or Edgartown, Cape Cod and is appreciated for being unique and fluid.

Tickets $20 adults, $15 members/students. Call 941.365.2032 for more information.

The Celery Barn is located at 266 South Links Ave, Sarasota, FL 34236, tele: 941. 504. 0792 or visit www.beverlyasmith.com or www.towlescourt.com for more information.
