Sarasota ABSTRACT EXPRESSIONIST ARTIST invited to showcase work at the "Together" Contemporary Art Show in NEW YORK CITY

Beverly A. Smith will feature her abstract paintings at the New Century Artists Gallery, March 1-19th

Sarasota, FL---January 26, 2011---Critically acclaimed abstract expressionist artist, Beverly A. Smith has been invited by show curator and organizer Basha Maryanska to exhibit her art at the prestigious New Century Artists Gallery "Together" Contemporary Art Show in New York City, March 1-19th.

Her featured oil on canvas pieces at the show will include: Tip Toe Marsh, Edgartown Marsh, Sarasota/Bourne Pond. Each of these works highlight Smith's ability to focus the attention of the onlooker on specific emotions and observations made by the artist – her commentary on what it's like to be in each of these places.

Smith, a native New Englander who has travelled the world, produces bright and energetic work in thick oil using a palette knife and paint brush. Much of her work draws on her love of the marshes in Falmouth and Edgartown, Cape Cod and is appreciated for being unique and fluid.

"It is such an honor to be personally invited to showcase my work in NYC." Smith joins a group of highly acclaimed artists in all mediums at this art show.
